

Treatment Areas

At Rigo Spa we pride ourselves in creating beautiful wellness solutions that offer real health benefits. In order to achieve this we supply and install market leading products in all types of treatment rooms. The cutting edge equipment we supply offers both superb function and excellent aesthetics.

The above images show one of our mechanized massage beds which its attractive natural wood base and thick upholstered mattress. This bed is ideal for the spa environment as it is comfortable for facials but very sturdy for heavy-duty massages.

Rigo Spa Supplies a number of massage benches for the application of wet massages, soap brush massages, hot stone, ayurveda treatments or vichy shower, etc. These benches come with many optional extras including a heated lying surface with adjustable temperature. One shown below left.

Another massage table we provide is the 'Feeling' bed. Users receive warm dry water massages without the inconvenience of getting unclothed or wet. Enclosed in the bed are 95 litres of water which travels through a pump and is projected upwards to provide a powerful, warm water massage to a person lying comfortably on top. Image shown below on the right.

We also supply many kinds of Balneotherapy baths and Dry floats. We have a substantial array of massages and therapies we can offer through a number of different products.
